Dated 16th January 1946.

No. M 7308—G. M 67 45-3. The following instructions from the Headquarters Supreme Allied Commander, South-East Asia, regarding the control of civilian travel to operational areas and territories under Military Administration in South-East Asia are published for general information :—

Control of civilian travel to operational areas and territories under Military Administration in South-East Asia.

Persons who must obtain permits.

1. All persons other than the exceptions mentioned below travelling to operational areas or territories under Military Administration in South-East Asia will be refused entry unless in possession of a South-East Asia Permit issued under the authority of the Supreme Allied Commander.

Exceptions.

(a) British, U. S., Dutch, French and Chinese Service personnel on duty,

(b) Diplomatic personnel on duty,

(c) British, U. S. and French War Correspondents holding War correspondents licenses, and who are accredited to the Forces in south-East Asia,

(d) Merchant Seamen on ships articles.

NOTE.—(i) All the above will be in possession of the requisite official identification appropriate to their own forces,

(ii) In respect of Merchant Seamen mentioned in (d) above they will be in possession of official landing passes which are issued by the Port authorities concerned and which will be accounted for before the ships leave.

(e) Persons being repatriated under official auspices.

Permit Issuing Authorities.

2. South-East Asia Permits may be obtained from :—

(a) Civil Affairs Division. HQ SAcsea.

(b) The Military Permit Office, War Office, London,

(c) HQ Sacsea Liaison Section at LHQ Melbourne,

(d) The appropriate authorities in the various territories concerned.

South-East Asia Permits can be obtained upon application, subject to security classification, from any of the authorities referred to above by persons coming within one or other of the following categories :—

(a) Allied officials, technicians or employees proceeding on duty or for purposes sponsored by the local authorities of the territory concerned.

(b) Welfare and canteen workers, and persons employed by them, operating under agencies accredited to the allied forces.

4. The intention is to facilitate civilian travel for private commercial purposes as early and as much as practicable. The extent of the facilities which can be granted now is under examination in the light of actual conditions in the reoccupied territories (e.g., in regard to transport, accommodation, supplies and health arrangements) and will be the subject of supplementary instructions which will have the effect of increasing the number of categories of persons to whom permits may be issued under para 3 above.

Pending issue of the supplementary instructions referred to applications by persons not coming within one or other of the above categories require individual reference to HQ SACSEA.

5. Special arrangements apply to Ceylon, with regard to which see para 13—14 below.

Applications for Permits.

6. Applications for permits should be addressed to one or other of the authorities referred to in para 2 above, as may be most convenient. A form of application is attached at Appendix "A."

7. Applications handled at HQ SACSEA will be given security clearance by "CICB" after being screened, in the case of United States Chinese Netherlands and French civilians, by the Liaison Section of the nation concerned at HQ SACSEA.

8. Applications initiated in the United Kingdom will be handled on the Supreme Allied Commander's behalf by the Military Permit Office in London which is authorised to issue permits to the categories of persons mentioned in para 3 above without individual reference to the theatre. In such cases security check is made by MI 5.

9. No civilian, not coming within one or other of the exceptions referred to in para 1 above, should leave the United Kingdom for a destination in South East Asia Command without first applying at the Military Permit Office, War Office, London, for a South East Asia permit.

10. Similarly applications initiated in Australia will be handled by the Civil Affairs Representative on the HQ SACSEA Liaison Section at LHQ Melbourne to whom all intending travellers to destinations within South East Asia Command should apply.

11. Applications handled by territorial authorites under para 2 (d) above will be given security clearance in British territories under arrangements to be made with GSI (b) in accordance with the principles prescribed in SIC (44) 414—1 Section III, and in other territories according to the local arrangements in force.

Permits issued by JCS Washington.

12. Permits issued by the JCS Washington to persons coming within the approved categories referred to in para 3 will be honoured subject to endorsement by the port authorities at the port of entry. Holders of such permits should exchange them for South East Asia Permits within fourteen days of arrival in South East Asia Command by applications.

(a) if in Ceylon, to HQ SACSEA ;

(b) if in British territories, to the Chief Civil Affairs Officer of the territory concerned ;

(c) if in other areas, to the appropriate authority.

Entry into Ceylon.

13. In the case of persons travelling to destinations in Ceylon, and not intending to proceed onwards to any of the re-occupied areas only those coming from the United Kingdom will require to obtain SEA Permits.

14. The Military Permit Office in London will issue SEA Permits to intending travellers to destinations in Ceylon under para 13 above to the following categories of persons, provided that the Ceylon Government has first issued entry permits to female applicants in category (a), and to all applicants in category (b) :—

(a) All British subject—

(i) having settled employment in Ceylon, or

(ii) proceeding to Ceylon for the purpose of taking up such employement, or

(iii) proceeding to Ceylon on business sponsored by Government as being essential, or

(iv) normally resident in Ceylon.

(b) Wives, families and fiancees of persons in category (a), applications by persons wishing to travel to destinations within Ceylon not covered by the categories set out in this paragraph will require prior reference to C-in-C Ceylon for the Governor's decision.

NOTE.—A. S. E. A. permit will not of itself authorise entry into Ceylon and where reference to the Ceylon Government is required under the Passport Rules or Regulations, such reference will still be necessary.

Persons in transit through South East Command.

15. Sea transit permits will be issued where necessary by HQ SACSEA or by the Military Permit Office, London, or by the HQ SACSEA Liaison Section LHQ Melbourne, as the case may be, to Civilians who have occasion to travel through South East Asia Command to reach destinations not within the theatre. Such permits will be clearly marked in transit and will show a destination not within the theatre.

16. SEA Transit Permits will only be issued to persons already holding the requisite entry permits, or other specific authority, to enter the theatre in which their destination lies.

Endorsements on Permits.

17. Issuing authorities will indicate on the permits actual territorial destinations of permit holders, so far as this is known (e.g., Burma, Malaya, Borneo, etc.) which may be varied by subsequent endorsement made by the appropriate authority in such other territory within South East Asia Command as the holder may apply to visit.

18. The period of validity of any permit will, except in special cases, be limited to six months.

19. Except in the case of Ceylon, where normal immigration procedure will apply, South East Asia Permits will be stamped at Ports of entry and exit by British or Allied security authorities.

Territories included in South East Asia Permit system.

20. Permits may be issued under the above instructions for travel to Ceylon (subject to paras 13 and 14 above)

Burma

Malaya (including all Straits Settlements),

British North Borneo

Sarwak

Netherlands Indies Territories within South East Asia Command.

French Indo-China (areas occupied by SEAC Forces).

N.B.—As the control of Civilian travel in South East Asia has now been handed over to Civil Affairs Branch, Headquarters Allied Land Forces, South-east Asia, all applications from Civilians for permits to enter countries under Military Administration in South East Asia, and all notifications of those proceeding as members of sponsored undertaking, should be forwarded direct to Civil Affairs Branch, Head-quarters Allied Land Forces, South East Asia and not to head-quarters supreme allied Commander, South East Asia, as hitherto.
